

I would like to ask you to leave Indiana's no-call law alone. I am very happy with it and do not want other calls to my home. I am intelligent enough to pick who I want to do business with and do not need them calling my home.